

PANGAEA PRIVE

NEW MANAGEMENT AT TOP BEACH VENUE

Pangaea Prive is under new management and is open all day every day for a "truly exclusive beach experience". Clients can enjoy a wide range of cocktails on one of their large and luxurious beds (€50) and there is a new menu with around 40 sumptuous dishes to choose from. It remains open in the evenings until late.

More information:
Tel. 952 825 729;
www.pangaeaprive.com

MIJAS LA CALA LIONS

RAISING FUNDS FOR LOCAL CHARITIES

Members of Mijas La Cala Lions Club held their annual Charter Ball at the Hotel Tamisa Golf, raising over €2,500 on the night. Since its formation 10 years ago, the club has raised a total of €200,000 for distribution to many local charities and individuals in need. Meanwhile, Roz and her staff at the charity shop have managed to cut overheads this year by nearly €60,000; all the staff work for free and most of the stock is given by generous donors.

Anyone able to help can contact Roz on Tel: 952 599 313 or email, rowleyc@terra.es

BLACK FOREST GATEAU

FILM PREMIERE IN FUENGIROLA

The film premiere for Black Forest Gateau – at Fuengirola's Salon Varieties Theatre – has been put back a week to 13 September. Produced by Wrinkly Film, a company of expat film lovers, the independent film is about a group of retired Brits living on the Coast who think they can plan the perfect heist. More information: www.wrinklyfilm.com

ITV ON THE COAST

SPECIAL REPORT ON HOUSING MARKET

An ITV News film crew travelled to the Coast to interview representatives from Fuengirola-based international property investment company Propertyshowrooms.com, regarding the housing market in Spain and across the world. Nikki Beach in Elviria was the stunning backdrop for the interviews.

Pictured are: (right) Danny Bance, Alistair Batey (ITV cameraman), Jeanette Britton (ITV reporter), Steve Binge; (left) Danny Bance, Nicky Segal, Steve Binge, Alistair Batey, Jeanette Britton, Mike O'Riordan, Mark Wilson, Gareth Milton.

